

Gun Shop & Shooting Range
FIREARM TRANSFER FORM

The Vault: _____

So, you purchased a firearm through an auction site or a friend. They can't just send you the gun through the mail. How are they going to get the firearm to you ?

The Vault is licensed to be your legal transfer agent. Here are the steps:

1. For each firearm, the ACTUAL BUYER or SELLER must complete a Firearms Transfer form and pay the Transfer Fee.
2. A. If you bought from a dealer (FFL Transfer) - The Vault will send a copy of our Firearms License to the selling dealer (please provide all contact info below). The dealer will send the firearm(s) to the Vault.
B. If you bought from an individual (GA resident to GA resident) - We will need a copy of their Georgia driver's license or other government issued ID with current residential address. The seller will send the firearm(s) to the Vault.
3. We will contact the ACTUAL BUYER when the firearm is ready to be picked up.
4. Each firearm must be picked up by the ACTUAL BUYER. If the ACTUAL BUYER does not have a concealed carry permit, a successful background check is required before any firearm can be released. There is a $10 charge for the required NICS background check. There are no refunds of the transfer fee or background check in the event of a "delay" or "deny" background check result. The Vault does not release on a "delay" result.

All firearms MUST be picked up by the ACTUAL BUYER. The Vault will not accept or send firearms without this paid Form. All postal fees are the Buyer's responsibility. See reverse side for Terms & Conditions, including any NICS delays.

Incoming Transfer Fee is $40 per gun. Outgoing Transfer Fee is $40 per gun + shipping and handling (min $20)

Terms & Conditions

The Vault is a Federal Firearms License (FFL) holder. As such we can operate as your legal transfer agent per The Vault Terms and Conditions below.

You must complete The Vault Firearms Transfer Form for the specific firearm(s) and pay The Vault FFL Transfer Fee. The Transfer Fee is per firearm.

Once the firearm is received at The Vault, the ACTUAL BUYER is required to fill out the appropriate NICS paperwork for your background check. There is a $10.00 charge for the required NICS background check.

It is the customers responsibility to follow all Federal, State and Local laws. All firearms MUST be picked up by the BUYER (ACTUAL PURCHASER). A valid government issued identification document, or combination of government issued documents which reflect the buyers current residential address.

NICS PROCEED***

You may take possession of the firearm.

NICS DELAY***

The Vault does not release on a "delay" result. If a delay is not resolved within the 72 hour NICS wait period, you will need to immediately pay the shipping fee to return the firearm to the seller to avoid any additional expenses or storage fees by The Vault.

NICS DENIAL***

You will need to immediately pay the shipping fee to return the firearm to the seller to avoid additional expenses or storage fees by The Vault.

PICKUP AND STORAGE***

Under no circumstances should a firearm be left at The Vault for more than 72 hours. By initiating a firearms transfer through The Vault the customer agrees that after 72 hours a $10.00 per day, per firearm, storage fee is applied retroactive to the transaction date. After 30 days, if the firearm is still unclaimed, The Vault may sell the firearm to recoup its expenses.

*There are no refunds for the transfer fee or background check.
